Office of the District of Columbia Auditor Launches New and Improved Website

Washington, DC – Today, the Office of the District of Columbia Auditor (ODCA) launched a brand new website to better serve the District of Columbia Council, District agencies and residents. Some of the new features include: an explanation of the audit process to better prepare agencies if they are the subject of an audit, an agency Self-Assessment form and a listing of Internal Control Best Practices designed to help agencies remain in compliance with District rules and regulations, and a description of the 45 audits that ODCA will conduct this Fiscal Year.

Our new crisp and concise lay-out allows visitors to gain useful information and navigate the site with ease. “We are very excited about our new website and hope that it is a useful tool for residents, heads of District agencies and the Council,” says Yolanda Branche, Acting District of Columbia Auditor.
